

Animals in a Disaster or Emergency

On Saturday, February 18th at 10am in the Kensington Community Center, 59 Arlington Ave, Kensington [map: <https://goo.gl/maps/sfDri>], the Kensington Public Safety Council, will present a talk on "Animals in Disasters and Emergencies". This event is free and open to all.

Noell Crosse from Contra Costa County Animal Services will speak to the need for preparing in advance for a time of crisis. What to do before during and after an emergency/disaster. She will also be offering licensing (with amnesty) at the Event. If you wish to take advantage to the licensing, please bring cash or a check for payment and proof of recent rabies vaccination.

Hazel Weiss, M.S., M.A. will discuss "Service Dogs, What to Know and Why".

Access Advocacy....Training and Technical Assistance....Public Policy....Assistance Dog Education....Service Dog Laws

Joining Hazel will be Christine Stribling, founder of Red Fern Farms in Georgia where they do training of Service Dogs, Therapy Dogs, Animal Assisted Therapy, Service Dog Ministry.

Hazel will be accompanied by her Service Dog, Virgil.

RSVP to the Kensington Public Safety Council, kensingtonpsc@gmail.com, so we know how many will be attending.